The awarded selection of products has been revealed for the 4th edition of the Archiproducts Design Awards!

From furniture to lighting, from decor to construction, 100 entries have conquered a spot on the podium, defining the status quo of the international creative scene.

The jury – including 60 international architecture studios, communication agencies, journalists, and architecture photographers – assessed over 700 product applications from 400 international brands. The selection was far from straightforward, and recognized research into the best formal and material solutions, as well as the ability to anticipate practical and conceptual scenarios in residential and contract projects.

Confirming their role as a dynamic stage for collective reflection on new tendencies in international design, the ADA also serve once more to describe interesting new collaborations between brand and designer.

As per past editions, Furniture is among the categories which received the most entries.

Piero Lissoni's signature marks 4 brands in this category: Boffi with the Antibes walk-in closet; Lema with the Ombra chair; Porro with the Pascal table and De Padova with the Flying Landscape sofa.

Six armchairs selected by the jury: N.200, bent wood and Viennese straw designed by Michael Anastassiades for Wiener GTV Design; Oliva, the fabric armchairs designed by Constance Guisset for Zanotta, and Reversivel, created by Martin Eisler for Tacchini; the leather JK Easy Chair signed by Jun Kamahara for Ritzwell; the TIME – 53A / 53B wooden chair from Alias conceived by Alfredo Häberli; and last but not least Angie, the fabric armchair by GamFratesi for Minotti.

Gamfratesi also signs Coupé the leather bed by Poltrona Frau.

As far as the tables, three have been awarded by the jury: Bisel, designed for Glas Italia by Patricia Urquiola, Kobe by Piet Boon and Lean On Me, the marble table of the young Canadian brand, Claste.

Besides the piece proposed by De Padova, two more sofas were awarded: Rendez-Vous by Sergio Bicego for Saba Italia, and Suiseki, designed by Andrea Steidl for La Cividina. Desalto is once again on the podium this year with the stool Strong, based on a project by Eugeni Quitllet. Three chairs were selected: Kiyumi Wood AR by Tomoya Tabuchi for Aarmet; Schaise, signed by Stéphanie Marin for Smarin, and Zeitraum with OKITO PLY by Läufer + Keichel. Winning also in this category, Rock, the leather dormouse designed by Marc Sadler for da a, and the Cimento® Lido bench by Parisotto + Formenton for Cimento.

The prize-giving event will be hosted on November 14th at Archiproducts Milano showroom, in the heart of Zona Tortona. The winners will receive the ADA trophy designed by the Spanish duo MUT Design and handmade in limited edition by De Castelli.
