THESE ARE THE BEST NEW SOFAS FROM THE SPRING 2020 HIGH POINT MARKET

The trade show was canceled, but ED is still bringing you our favorites.

A quality sofa is the anchor—the very foundation—of any living space, and finding the right one can often be a daunting task. As such, the new launches at every High Point Market, known for its wide array of expertly crafted furniture, are among the most anticipated at the twice-yearly trade show. The ELLE Decor editors were not able to browse in person due to the cancellation of the Spring 2020 fair, but never fear—we've gathered up the best of the best for you below. From traditional chesterfields to statement sectionals, there's a seating solution for everyone here.

SUISKEI SECTIONAL

La Cividina's Suiskei was conceived as an interpretation of the Japanese art of arranging stones. The seats, backrests, and armrests can be reconfigured in a number of ways, resulting in a sculptural multipurpose piece.
